Issue #25 - May 2026 - www.amethyst-dragon.com

Greetings, and welcome to the latest issue of the Monthly Missive, a little newsletter written to give you a look at what's going on in my little corner of the D&D world.

Let's Meet in Person

I have thoroughly enjoyed getting to talk to people about D&D stuff at gaming conventions, and I'm looking forward to seeing faces, new and old, at upcoming events.

Events I plan to be at:

- Pride in the Park - Sep 3, 2026 (La Crosse, WI)
- NEW Gamepalooza - Nov 2026 (Oshkosh, WI)
- Winona Con - Nov 2026 (Winona, MN)
- Holiday Gift & Craft Show - Nov 2026 (Green Bay, WI)
- GEEKcon - Dec 2026 (Eau Claire, WI)
- Castle Con - Jan 2027 (Rochester, MN)
- Plattecon - Feb 2027 (Platteville, WI)
- Evercon - Mar 2027 (Rothschild, WI)
- Mankato Con - Mar 2027 (Mankato, MN)

If you want to arrange a meet up or suggest a midwest gaming convention, there's a "conventions" channel for that on my Discord server. I'm also open to in-person author Q&As at libraries, bookstores, or game stores.

Currently Available Publications

I have several publications that are currently available for those who enjoy D&D (or D&D-related) stuff.

The Amethyst Dragon's Hoard of Everything

This is my main publication. It is a triple-sized 5e supplement for players and DMs, with nearly 2,000 options and ideas of them to help spur your own imagination.

You can get the book delivered to your door or you can get the digital version for your electronic devices.

You can purchase the both the hardcover and the digital book at amethyst-dragon.com/book. The hardcover ships with a QR code link for a 20% discount on a digital copy.

If you are looking for just the digital version of the book, you can follow this link to get a 5% discount.

Game stores in the US can get hardcover copies from me to sell to their customers, so if you've got a local store you prefer to support and buy from, let them know you want this book. Public libraries can also get the book for circulation to their patrons. I give such entities deals on the pricing of the hardcover.

Words of Wisdom (or Not)

This is a collection of direct quotes from the players, or their characters, in a weekly D&D campaign that took place over five years. It's 114 pages of amusement, all presented with no context. You can get it right here.

The Warlock, the Witch, and the Wizard

This is a short adventure designed for a party of 1st level characters, and you can get your copy here.

Book 2 Progress

I don't have a lot of progress to display, but I'm still writing brand new content for my next D&D supplement. Today I'm finishing up a new paladin subclass and starting another for smarter barbarians.

Things I've created just for this 2nd book are appearing on the list of creations on my website. Each of them is tagged with a small, turquoise shield (like the purple shield that marks things found only in my first book).

Patron Poll

There is currently a poll running on my Patreon, where members can cast their vote to decide which three options I'm going to use as inspiration for some big monsters I'm going to make this month.

Homebrew Roundup: April's Creations

Here's a look at the homebrew content I created and shared on my Patreon page during the month of April 2026. It was a busy month, as I made underground-themed homebrews for every single day. Three of them were subclasses.

Some of this content will eventually become free for anyone once it gets out of Early Access status (1 month after it was posted), and some will remain available only to Patreon members even after that time.

There's Always More

I create new homebrews two or more times each week, using anything and everything as inspiration.

If you'd like to support the continual creation of new D&D game things, while getting access to everything I post right away, becoming a patron of the D&D arts is definitely appreciated. Some members (Seasoned Adventurer and higher tiers) even get one or more free monthly commissioned custom content creations for their games as part of their subscription.

You can sign up for an annual membership as a patron, or gift annual memberships to people you know like new D&D game content. Doing so saves 15%, which is like getting almost 2 months free.

As always, people are also invited to connect with me, and with others, on my Discord server to talk about D&D stuff or other things that come to mind. I sometimes stream what's on my screen while homebrewing or working on my next book.

Thank you, and have a great month.
